

Hi-Vis UK Online DSI Project Platform Cookie Policy

Hi-Vis UK ("us", "we", or "our") uses cookies on our Online DSI Project Platform (the "Service"). By using the Service, you consent to the use of cookies.

Our Online DSI Project Platform Cookies Policy provides users with the necessary information about our website's use of cookies. It explains what cookies are, how we use cookies, how third parties we may partner with may use cookies on the Service, your choices regarding cookies and further information about cookies.

This Policy should be read in conjunction with our related Online DSI Project Platform services policies such as:

- Online DSI Project Platform Acceptable Use Policy. Sets out terms on which visitors are permitted to use the features of our platform.
- Online DSI Project Platform Privacy Policy. Sets out our policy in relation to the collection, storage and use of personal data.
- Online DSI Project Platform Terms of Use Policy. Sets out the terms of access and use of our platform.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of text sent to your web browser by a website you visit. A cookie file is stored in your web browser and allows the Service or a third-party to recognize you and make your next visit easier and the Service more useful to you.

Cookies can be "persistent" or "session" cookies. Persistent cookies remain on your personal computer or mobile device when you go offline, while session cookies are deleted as soon as you close your web browser.

How we use cookies.

When you use and access the Service, we may place or ask to place cookie files in your web browser. We use cookies for the following purposes:

- To enable certain functions of the Service
- To provide analytics
- To provide targeted advertising

We use both session and persistent cookies including different types:

- Essential cookies: We may use cookies to remember information that changes the way the Service behaves or looks, such as a user's language preference on the Service.
- Analytics cookies: We may use analytics cookies to track information how the Service is used so that we can make improvements. We may also use analytics cookies to test new pages, new features, or new functionality of the Service to see how our users react to them.

- Targeting cookies: These cookies record your visit to our Online DSI Project Platform, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our Online DSI Project Platform and the content displayed on it more relevant to you and your peers' interests. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.

Third-party cookies.

- As well as Online DSI Project Platform and main Hi-Vis UK website cookies, we may from time to time use third-party cookies to help us understand usage statistics of our sites and services, deliver advertisements of our other products and services on and through our sites, for example.

Your choices regarding our cookies

If you'd like to delete cookies or instruct your web browser to delete or refuse cookies, please go to the help pages of your personal web browser for instruction.

Please note, however, that if you delete cookies or refuse to accept them, you might not be able to use all the features our sites offer, you may not be able to store your preferences, and some of our pages might not display properly. If this happens and you can't resolve it, contact us.
